

For Immediate Release – June 25, 2008

Local Non-Profit Fund Provides Soap Box Derby Cars To Deserving Youth - The Chance of a Lifetime -

COLORADO, June 25 / PRNews / - The John Lee Memorial Soap Box Derby Fund, a Colorado based 501(c)3 non-profit organization, gave ‘the chance of a life time’ to three deserving youngsters this month as they participated in 2 local Soap Box Derby race events. Cameron Clarke participated in the Sertoma Mile High Soap Box Derby held in Denver, while Bryan Parker and Azjia Vanderweek both participated in the Pikes Peak Acura Soap Box Derby held this past Sunday in Colorado Springs.

The deserving racers, provided by the Big Brothers / Big Sisters Program and the Sertoma organization, piloted Stock Division cars provided by the John Lee Memorial Soap Box Derby Fund. The Fund, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Faasst Performance Driving School, accepts tax deductible donations from individuals, small businesses, corporations and public safety groups. “One of our goals for The Fund is to participate heavily in the community and provide Soap Box Derby race cars to deserving individuals. We are honored to play a role in the Mile High and Pikes Peak Soap Box Derby events”, said Judy Faass, administrator of the John Lee Memorial Soap Box Derby Fund and owner of the FAASST Performance Driving School.

The John Lee Memorial Soap Box Derby Fund will have a Soap Box Derby car on display this Saturday, June 28th at the Garden Ranch Family YMCA Community Flea Market, 7:30am to 1pm. Donations for The Fund will be accepted at this event or can be mailed to 4164 Austin Bluffs Pkwy #219, Colorado Springs, CO 80918.

For further Fund information or for donation options, visit The Fund’s website: www.johnleememorialsbdfund.org or email sbdfund@faasst.com or call 719-761-1372.

About the All American Soap Box Derby

The goals of the Soap Box Derby Program are to promote families working together to teach youngsters some of the basic skills of workmanship along with the spirit of competition and the perseverance to continue a project to completion. Each driver (age 8 - 17) must build their own car, with adult help, to qualify to race. For more local SBD information visit: www.ppsbd.com , www.smhsbd.com or call Glenn Scott 719-488-8808 or Steve Colvin 303-368-5148.

John Lee Memorial Soap Box Derby Fund

Judy Faass - Administrator

4164 Austin Bluffs Pkwy #219, Colorado Springs, CO 80918

ph: 719-761-1372

Email: sbdfund@faasst.com Website: www.johnleememorialsbdfund.org